

LITTLE FALLS SCHOOL NO. 1 WEEK OF RESPECT: OCTOBER 7-11, 2019

What is Week of Respect?

The first week in October was designated by the State of New Jersey as a "Week of Respect." Schools, in order to recognize the importance of character education, are required to observe the week by providing age-appropriate instruction focusing on character education to prevent harassment, intimidation or bullying (HIB).

How is School No. 1 celebrating Week of Respect?

Little Falls School Number 1 is kicking off Week of Respect on Monday, October 7th, by wearing Blue. October 7th is World Bullying Prevention Day. Theme days have been created to celebrate the week.

In addition, Mrs. Budd and Ms. Davis have created a "Hornet Counselors' Corner" website that is accessible through our school district website (www.lfschools.org). Under the Monthly Activities tab there will be updated activities and reminders updated monthly. Please checkout our October Activity!
